United States Troops Arrive at Pine Ridge Agency.

NO HOSTILE INDIANS IN SIGHT.

The Great Messiah Does Not Make It. Appearance as Predicted. An Earlier Appearance Preventing and No Immediate Trouble Feared.

OMAHA, Nov. 21.—A Pine Ridge, S. Dak., special to The World-Herald says: Gen. Brooke and the military, a few less than 400, arrived at Pine Ridge agency at 7 o'clock yesterday morning after the roughest forced marches ever experienced by the oldest members of the command. The troops suffered materially from the cold during the march of twenty-five miles, which was begun at 12 o'clock. The roads are so rough that several wagons were overturned on the way, and a teamster named Burke, from Fort Omaha, was buried under one of them, his life being broken. Many long delays were caused by such accidents. There were no hostiles to meet the soldiers when they arrived at the agency, and they at once went into camp on a plateau commanding the entire valley.

Jack Red Cloud and a lot of the families were at Wounded Knee, twenty-five miles away from the Pine Ridge agency, on the day of the massacre. Yesterday was the day set for the Messiah to appear in the form of a buffalo, but no stray messiah nor buffalo has been reported on the reservation. The Indian police have all resumed their duty. There are seldom any Indians about the agency excepting on issue days, consequently there is a lack of hostiles about the post, most all of them being down on the reservation at the various villages where they are holding their horses in defiance of the orders of the agent. The next issue day is Monday.

Two Kettle Tribes.

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 21.—A Pierre, S. Dak., special to The Tribune says: Capt. Norville, a special agent of the government stationed here to adjudicate Indian claims, yesterday paid a visit to the Two Kettle tribe of Sioux, living some distance up Bad river. These Indians are partly civilized and the report was circulated that they were deserting their homes to go to Hump and Big Foot's camps and join the hostiles in ghost dances. When the captain found these rumors, he positively denied it and made affidavit to that effect.

The captain then waited upon Crow Eagle and Hump Rib, the two head men of the band, and they told the captain that emissaries had visited them from the Cherry Creek Indians, and one evening while they were having a pleasant little dance one of Big Foot's men came in and addressed them and told them about the new Chief, and how he was going to lead the Indians into happiness and destroy the whites. He said they knew this was going to happen and urged them to come over to the Cheyenne river and join with them in their ghost dances. But they told him they would not go and neither had they been there. They told the captain they wished he would have it said in the Pierre papers that they were not going to join the new Messiah craze.

Further they stated that within the past few days several of the hostiles had appeared among them, making threats that if they did not join them, enough force would be sent them at once to massacre the Two Kettle tribes without warning. These Indians stand in great fear of the hostiles, and said they were going into hiding immediately until the Great Father sent his soldiers to protect them. The captain said that if White Buffalo, son of Sitting Bull, who is with the Two Kettle band, had recently had his star taken from him because he would not make the arrest of an Indian Messiah agent, who was an old bosom friend of his. He sent word to his father stating that he was under arrest because he was a son of Sitting Bull.

Cordon Around the Restless Indians.

OMAHA, Nov. 21.—At army headquarters here, no news has been received from Pine Ridge other than that given. It is the belief of the Indian fighters stationed here that the bad news away from the reservation will break into small bands and raid and harass settlers on the edges of the reservations. Capt. Wells, in command of two troops of the Eighth cavalry from Fort Meade is at Omaha, with orders to move on the reservation northwest of Pine Ridge to head off stragglers. Thus, with Col. Smith's command at Rosebud, will complete a cord around the restless Indians.

Report Sent to Washington.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—Aging Commissioner of Indian Affairs Bell, yesterday afternoon received the following telegram from Indian Agent Cooper of the Pine Ridge agency: "In the day very much excited. Continue to dance. Gen. Brooks, with two companies of infantry, three troops of cavalry, one H. & H. and one Gatling gun, just arrived."

GROWING MORE SERIOUS.

The Indians Well Armed and Preparing to Fight for Their Religious Cause. OMAHA, Nov. 21.—An Indian from Wounded Knee gives the impression which has caused the agents and all to put on a more serious look. Coming in yesterday afternoon he reported that the hostile Wounded Knees were still carrying on their dances and that they had heard of the arrival of the military, but what is of much more importance to the agents, they have strapped on their guns and are dancing fully armed. They declare that they will meet the soldiers and will not hesitate to go into battle with them.

Reports relative to the Indians declaring their willingness to fight for their religion as a cause have come in frequently, but up to this time are simply rumors. This information comes direct, however, from a source which Agent Rorer pronounces trustworthy, the man who carried it being one of the agent's own carriers.

"I think it is just as well that the people outside be placed in possession of the exact facts in this case," said Mr. Rorer. "It is not worth while to deny further that the trouble is imminent. Every one of these hostiles is heavily loaded with ammunition, and they will use it. I have been among them before."

"What are you going to do?" "We can do nothing yet until the interior department and the war department give instructions. What we think most advisable to do is to wait and let them play their part. They will do it, too. Bloodshed is all that will stop them now."

"That applies to stopping the dances?" "Yes, sir, they must be stopped, of course, and soon."

Gen. Brooke himself reports it almost impossible to get new information, in fact, there is nothing more than the oral determination of the Indians to resist to the last any attempts to stop their dancing. This ghost dance has never been described. It consists of a collection of a hundred or more, generally young Indians who form a ring around a tree within which are placed clothing and gifts for the Messiah.

A special from Pine Ridge says that there is no apparent cause for alarm at the agency. The few Indians there are walking about quietly, stoically indifferent to the presence of the troops. There is an anxious feeling among the whites, however. Special Agent Cooper arrived from Winfield, Kas., this morning.

A Battle Reported.

CHICAGO, Nov. 21.—Gen. Miles has just received word that the troops under Gen. Brooke had a fight with the Indians yesterday afternoon between Rushville and Pine Ridge. The extent of the casualties and the result of the engagement has not yet been learned.

Asking Protection.

OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 21.—A Cheyenne, Wyo., special to The World-Herald says: The report that the Indians were coming through the border river country in Wyoming from the Pine Ridge to the Shoshone agency has caused the people of northern Wyoming to ask for the retention of the two companies of troops at Fort McKinney, who were under orders to proceed to Pine Ridge, and Governor Warren has asked that the troops be retained. In response to his request a company of infantry will be retained at McKinney. The cavalry going to Pine Ridge and Fort Russell are still waiting orders to move. The Indians in Wyoming are causing no trouble and none is anticipated.

VALUABLE PAPERS STOLEN.

A Chicago Real Estate Dealer Victimized to the Extent of $100,000.

CHICAGO, Nov. 21.—John Keller, the millionaire real estate dealer, who has an office on South Halsted street, was robbed of a tin box containing over $100,000 worth of deeds, notes and mortgages and other collateral yesterday evening. The story of the robbery is strange and indicates, plainly, that the robbery was planned with great care and executed in a most dexterous manner.

Mr. Keller left his office in the afternoon to make a number of business calls. He left the office of the Northern Trust company with the tin box and drove to a house on the West Side. He was inside about fifteen minutes and when he returned the tin box, which he had left in the rear of the buggy box, was gone. Mr. Keller jumped into the vehicle and drove rapidly to the DePauline station where he reported the robbery and offered a reward of $500 for the return of the box. Capt. Hayes at once detailed eight detectives on the work, and the capture of the neighborhood was made without result.

There can be no doubt that it was taken by men who knew Mr. Keller and were in some way acquainted with his business. On such trips the box frequently contained thousands of dollars. If it was not money the thieves were looking for it possibly may have been some one interested in destroying some of the valuable papers the box contained.

The work of the detectives revealed the presence of two men in the vicinity at the time the robbery was committed, and the circumstances indicate strongly that they are the guilty parties. The work of replacing the papers will cost Mr. Keller many thousands of dollars.

Prisoners Escape from Jail.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Nov. 21.—While the deputy sheriff was looking the prisoners in the jail cell of the jail yesterday three of them threw a blanket over their heads, grabbed their revolvers and ran to the door to escape. They were all caught by the deputy sheriff and are now in the jail.

DR. KOCH'S LYMPH.

An Article on How it is Prepared.

GREAT DEMAND FOR THE LIQUID

Several Eminent Physicians Endorse the New Discovery After a Thorough Test. Other Events That Occurred in the Old World.

BERLIN, Nov. 21.—In an article on the subject of Dr. Koch's cure for tuberculosis, The Frank Courier states that the lymph used is prepared in an incubating stove within a space that is hermetically sealed and sterilized, and thereby rendered free from fungus. The interior of the airtight space is divided by an unglazed porcelain diaphragm into an upper and lower section. In the upper section is placed a salted meat broth in a gelatinous state, containing colonies of tubercle germ. This mass gradually liquefies, and the gelatine liquid drops slowly through the porcelain plate into the lower section. The liquid then contains all the secretory products, but is free from all living or dead germs, or reproductive spheres, and is the lymph as used.

Dr. Virchow, the celebrated physician, presided at a meeting of the medical society yesterday. He made an address in which he defended Dr. Koch against the charge of having prematurely published the facts regarding the great discovery. Professor Virchow stated that Dr. Koch first informed the medical congress recently held in Berlin and the disclosures he then made were in compliance with the urgent request of the committee in congress and Dr. Virchow's Prussian minister of ecclesiastical affairs, education and medical affairs.

To-morrow's number of The German Medical Weekly will contain an article signed by Dr. Virchow and staff Surgeon General von Leyden, in which they declare that Dr. Koch's lymph is a most valuable remedy in many different cases, they are prepared to fully endorse Professor Koch's statements regarding his remedy.

Some of the evening papers warn the public against the ill-effects entertained by many regarding the efficacy of Koch's remedy. They also complain that the stock of lymph is being exhausted.

The Tagblatt says that Koch's procedure is so far from open to even criticism, because he has only given his lymph to a few collaborators who he could thoroughly trust to follow his instructions, while the great scientific establishments and hospitals are excluded from the benefits of the discovery. The Tagblatt declares that the dissatisfaction among medical men and the many patients who are anxious to submit to the treatment is quite justified, and declares that the present arrangements must be altered.

The demand for the Koch syringes is so great that the manufacturers are unable to fill all their orders. Herr Steiner, the celebrated tenor of Friedrich Wilhelm's theater, who is suffering from lumps of the face, was introduced at yesterday's meeting of the medical society twelve hours after receiving an injection of the Koch fluid.

War Predicted.

LONDON, Nov. 21.—Mr. Chaplin, member of parliament and a member of the cabinet, said in a speech at Gloucester the other night, that a civil war would be the next certain result of the adoption of Mr. Chamberlain's views in Ireland. Lord Claude Hamilton declared that whatever happened in the south and southwest of Ireland, they in Ulster did not intend to be governed by a Parliament in Dublin.

Eight Persons Poisoned.

BLAUER FALLS, Pa., Nov. 21.—A startling report comes from Clinton, a small place a few miles north of here, to the effect that a case of wholesale poisoning has started that town. It is said each person has been poisoned—a man and his wife, two children and four brothers. Particulars have not yet been learned, but it is known that at least one man is dead, while others are dangerously ill. Doctor Watson has been hastily called to the town, and nothing definite will be known until he arrives, as Clinton is one of the remotest of the Allegheny region.

By the same order announcement is made that the provisional department of Oklahoma and Indian territory was organized as a permanent department last August. The third order makes announcements concerning the next encampment representation thereat, etc.

Railroad Accident.

RHINECLIFF, N. Y., Nov. 21.—An accident occurred on the New York Central and Hudson River railroad at this place yesterday, which fortunately resulted only in demolishing a few freight cars. A northbound freight train was being switched to get out of the way of the South Shore limited express from New York. The engineer of the express train, however, mistook the signal, and upon discovering his mistake had recourse to the air brakes, which for some reason failed to work. He then reversed his engine and with his fireman jumped. The engine rushed into the rear end of the freight, smashing several cars to splinters. A part of the front end of the engine was also torn away. The engineer and fireman were slightly hurt.

The Site Selected.

CHICAGO, Nov. 21.—At yesterday's meeting of the National commission of the world's Columbian exposition the vexatious site question was finally settled by the adoption of the report of the National committee on grounds and buildings, with but one dissenting voice.

Commissioner Mercer's report provided for the main portion of the fair to be located in Jackson park, the art gallery, music hall and electric display to be placed on the lake front and Midway Plaisance, and Washington park to be used for the overflow.

Forger Captured.

UTICA, N. Y., Nov. 21.—Moses Marks, of Rochester, N. Y., who secured $25,000 by express from the National Commercial bank of New York, by means of a telegram to which he forged the name of William A. Waters, cashier of the Flour City National bank of Rochester, was captured in a house of ill-fame in this city yesterday evening. Moses' satchel, containing $25,000 of the stolen money in the original package, was recovered. Marks had shaved off his mustache. He positively refused to make any statement.

BOARD OF PARDONS' DOINGS.

Work Being Done on the Annual Report. Application of Prisoners Acted On. Various Other Happenings in the State of Interest to the Buckeye Readers.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 21.—The state board of pardons met again yesterday afternoon to resume work on the annual report. They state that it is improbable that any more applications will be considered. Messrs. Baughman and Malloy will file with the governor a report adverse to the commutation of Henry Popp, while Cook and Kennedy will recommend executive clemency.

The application of Jacob and Edward Wilson, the Athens county convicts, which was unanimously rejected by the board, was probably the "cheekiest" case before the board. The two men brutally murdered an old man within sight of his family. They were indicted for murder, and got off lightly, as everyone considered, with ten years sentences for manslaughter. They served but a little over two years and were paroled, and now seek unconditional pardons.

CANTON, O., Nov. 21.—John F. Balke, mayor of this city, and one of the most prominent millers in the state, as well as vice president of the Tri-State Millers' association, assigned to Attorney William A. Lynch yesterday evening for the benefit of his creditors. His liabilities are about $50,000 and the assets are thought to be considerably more. The failure is attributed to recent eastern fluctuations in the flour market, he having sent large consignments of flour to New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore, which have declined in price over $1 a barrel. Assignee Lynch will operate the mill for the local trade.

BLOODY ROW.

SPARTANBURG, S. C., Nov. 21.—There was a bloody row here at 2 o'clock this morning between two leading young lawyers over a game of poker. They had imbibed freely of wine during the night and became very boisterous. Finally one of them, James Pattee, became involved in a difficulty with Matthew Floyd.

Pattee in his drunken frenzy attacked Capt. Edwin Kerrison, mistaking him for Floyd. He slashed Kerrison, actually disemboweling him, but not inflicting fatal injuries. Floyd, seeing this, stabbed Pattee in the back, the knife blade penetrating the left lung. The sight of blood sobered the young men and a doctor was summoned. Pattee cannot live. No arrests have been made. All the parties are highly connected, and Kerrison is a son of a wealthy merchant in Charleston.

Indignant Railroad Employees.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 21.—Twenty-seven employees of the Lake Erie and Western railroad came here yesterday to present a list of grievances to General Manager Bradbury. Mr. Bradbury said that he understood that they had called as a committee of federation, as such he would not receive them. "As employees of the Lake Erie and Western," said he, "I am perfectly willing to talk with you, but I must decline to have any intercourse with you as the representatives of a federation." The men are very much incensed at this, and say they will bring him to terms if it has to be done by a strike. Their demand was for an increase in wages.
